LOCATION

Central to so many of Tacoma's landmarks and notable locations — Point Defiance, Wright Park, 6th Ave, University of Puget Sound and the downtown, Hilltop and Stadium Districts — and benefitting from strong transit and master plan projects, it's clear why this location and surrounding neighborhoods are drawing strong retail demand and attention for new multifamily development projects.

This excellent location is connected to existing infrastructure for biking, transit and trails, and less than a 10-minute bike ride to the Sound Transit Light Rail Hilltop Extension project (2023 completion).

Tacoma is consistently recognized as one of the most livable and walkable cities in America. Continuous investment with infrastructure improvements, a redeveloped waterfront and a thriving downtown are attracting people from all over the nation.

BUSINESS CLIMATE

- Business Financing & Incentives
- Opportunity Zone Investment
- Regional Transportation Infrastructure

Tacoma Link was the first modern electric light rail service in the state and takes riders from one end of downtown to the other—for free. Likewise, Sound Transit and Pierce Transit offer train, light rail and bus transportation throughout Pierce and King Counties, with route pick-ups about every 15-60 minutes.

MAJOR INDUSTRIES + STARTUP INCUBATORS

Maritime

Tacoma's 100+ year maritime history created 29K current jobs and a home to the seventh largest container port in the U.S., trading about $46B in goods per year.

Tech

The University of Washington Tacoma's School of Engineering & Technology trains some of the best tech and computer science experts in the country. Tacoma's retention rate for programmers and tech workers is also significantly higher than the rest of the country.

Art

The nonprofit arts and culture sector is a $64.72M industry in Tacoma, one that supports 1,735 full-time equivalent jobs and generates $6.58 million in local and state government revenue. Nonprofit arts and culture organizations, which spend $34.86 million annually, leverage a remarkable $29.86 million in additional spending by arts and culture audiences (not including cost of event admission).

Healthcare

Some of Pierce County's largest employers include MultiCare Health System, CHI Franciscan Health and Joint Base Lewis-McChord. MultiCare will open its expanded Mary Bridge Children's Hospital Campus in Downtown Tacoma in 2024. The adjacent city of Lakewood, home to JBLM, contains the 120-acre Madigan Army Medical Center, the largest military hospital on the West Coast.
