21. Purchaser's Default. A default shall occur under any of the following circumstances:

- A. Failure of Purchaser to make any payment due hereunder within fifteen (15) days after written notice from Seller that such payment is due.
- B. Failure of Purchaser to perform any other obligations contained in this Contract within thirty (30) days after written notice from Seller specifying the nature of the default or, if the default cannot be cured within thirty (30) days, failure within such forty five (45) days to commence and pursue curative action with reasonable diligence.

22. Remedies. In the event the Purchaser defaults under this Contract, the Seller may, at its election, take the following courses of action:

A. Suit for Delinquencies. The Seller may institute suit for any payment or other sums due and payable under this Contract as of the date of the judgment and any sums which have been advanced by Seller as of said date pursuant to the provisions of this Contract, and any other damages incurred by the Seller which are caused by the Purchaser's failure to comply with any provision or agreement herein; together with interest on all of said amounts at the rate of ten percent (10%) per annum from the date each such amount was advanced or due, as the case may be, to and including the date of collection.

B. Acceleration. Upon giving the Purchaser not less than fifteen (15) days' advance written notice of its intent to do so (within which time any monetary default may be cured without regard to the acceleration), and if the default is in the nature of a failure to timely pay any principal, interest, tax, or other sum of money required to be paid herein or if the Purchaser commits waste on the Property, the Seller may declare the entire unpaid balance of the Purchase Price and all interest then due thereon to be immediately due and payable and institute suit to collect such amounts, together with any sums advanced by the Seller pursuant to the provisions of this Contract, and together with interest on all of said sums at the Default Rate from the due date or date of each such advance to and including the date of collection.

C. Forfeiture and Repossession. The Seller may cancel and render void all rights, titles and interests of the Purchaser and its successors in this Contract and in the Property by giving a Notice of Intent to Forfeit pursuant to RCW 61.30.040-070, and said cancellation and forfeiture shall become effective if the default therein specified has not been fully cured within ninety (90) days thereafter and the Seller records a Declaration of Forfeiture pursuant to RCW 61.30.040-070. The entire balance of such sums due and to become due under this Contract shall be paid from the proceeds of any sale ordered by a court pursuant to RCW 61.30.120, including interest at the Default Rate to and including the sale date and all expenses incurred by the Seller as a result of such sale. Upon the forfeiture of this Contract, the Seller may retain all payments made hereunder by the Purchaser and may take possession of the Property ten (10) days following the date this Contract is forfeited and summarily eject the Purchaser and any person or persons having possession of said Property by, through or under the Purchaser who were properly given the Notice of Intent to Forfeit and the Declaration of Forfeiture. If any person or persons claiming by, through or under the Purchaser who were properly given the Notice of Intent to Forfeit and the Declaration of Forfeiture remain in possession of the Property more than twenty (20) days after such forfeiture, such person or persons shall be deemed tenants at will of the Seller and the Seller shall be entitled to institute an action for summary possession of the Property, and may recover from such person or persons in any such proceedings the fair rental value of the Property for the use thereof from and after the date of forfeiture, plus costs, including the Seller's reasonable attorneys' fees. To the extent permitted by applicable statute, the Seller shall have the right to obtain a deficiency against the Purchaser following the forfeiture of this Contract for damages caused by waste to the Property.

D. Judicial Foreclosure. To the extent permitted by any applicable statute, the Seller may judicially foreclose this Contract as a mortgage, and in connection therewith, may accelerate all of the debt due under this Contract if the defaults upon which such action is based are not cured within twenty (20) days following the Seller's advance written notice to the Purchaser which specifies such defaults and the acts required to cure the same (within which time any monetary default may be cured without regard to the acceleration); provided, however, such cure period shall be extended for up to thirty (30) additional days to the extent reasonably necessary to complete the cure of a non-monetary default if the Purchaser commences such cure within twenty (20) days following the Seller's advance notice and pursues it with due diligence. The Seller may, but shall not be required to, waive any right to a deficiency judgment in its foreclosure complaint. Following any foreclosure sale, the Purchaser may (but shall not be obligated to), during any redemption period, make such repairs and alterations to the Property as may be reasonably necessary for the proper operation, use, preservation and protection thereof; pay any taxes and assessments due during such period; insure the Property against loss by casualty; and pay utility bills, liens not extinguished by the foreclosure and other amounts relating to the Property to the extent due during such redemption period, and all of such expenses and payments, together with interest thereon from the date paid to reimbursement at the rate provided by statute for any other redemption amounts, shall be included in the amount required to be paid by any person to redeem the Property.

E. Specific Performance. The Seller or Purchaser may institute suit to specifically enforce any of the other parties' covenants hereunder.

F. Receivership. The parties hereto recognize and agree that in the event of default by the Purchaser in making any payments or in the performance of any of the other terms and conditions of this Contract, the period of time involved in repossessing the Property, forfeiting this Contract, or in obtaining possession of the Property by judicial process could cause irreparable damage to the Seller and to the Property. Therefore, the Purchaser hereby expressly agrees that in the event of any default under this Contract which is not cured the Seller shall have the right to apply to the Superior Court of the county in which the Property is situated for the appointment of a receiver under Chapter 7.60 of the Revised Code of Washington (or any chapter supplemental thereto) to take charge of and maintain control of, manage, farm, or operate the Property, to evict tenants therefrom who are not then in compliance with their leases, to lease any portion or all of the Property in the name of the Purchaser on such terms as the receiver may deem advisable, to make such alterations, repairs and improvements to the Property as the receiver may deem advisable, and to receive all rents and income therefrom and issue receipts therefore, and out of the amounts that are so received to pay all of the debts and obligations for which the Purchaser is liable hereunder prior to or during the period of the receivership, including, without limitation, payments on or for this Contract, taxes, assessments, insurance premiums, utility bills and costs of operating, maintaining, repairing and managing the Property.

G. Any sums received by the receiver in excess of said amounts shall be retained by the receiver to discharge all remaining liabilities of the Purchaser under this Contract until the entirety of such obligations have been satisfied, at which point any remaining excess shall be paid to the Purchaser without interest. Regardless of the application thereof, no sums requested by or paid to the receiver shall be deemed a partial cure for the purpose of requiring a notice of insufficient cure to be given to any person under RCW 61.30.090(3).

H. PURCHASER HEREBY SPECIFICALLY WAIVES THE RIGHT TO OBJECT TO THE APPOINTMENT OF A RECEIVER AND HEREBY EXPRESSLY CONSENTS THAT SUCH APPOINTMENT SHALL BE MADE AS AN ADMITTED EQUITY AND AS A MATTER OF ABSOLUTE RIGHT TO SELLER. PURCHASER FURTHER AGREES THAT THE RECEIVER SHALL HAVE ALL RIGHTS CONFERRED BY LAW, AND, IF NOT CONFERRED BY LAW, THE RIGHT TO COMPLETE ANY CONSTRUCTION ALREADY COMMENCED ON THE PREMISES AND/OR TO MAKE NECESSARY REPAIRS TO KEEP THE PROPERTY IN PROPER CONDITION DURING THE PERIOD OF RECEIVERSHIP.

I. Property Rental. If this Contract is forfeited or foreclosed as herein provided, or in any other manner permitted by law, or by mutual agreement of the Purchaser and the Seller, and the Purchaser shall thereafter remain in possession of the Property beyond any period otherwise permitted by law, the Purchaser agrees that it will occupy the Property as a tenant at will, and the Purchaser shall be obligated to pay, and hereby promises to pay, during the period of such tenancy at will, a fair market rental in the amount then agreed to by the parties or, in the absence of such agreement or until such agreement is reached, an amount equal to $3,250 per month payable in advance on the first day of the month, and the Seller shall have, in addition to all other remedies for the collection of rentals and the recovery of possession that are available to landlords under the laws of the state of Washington, the right to institute and maintain an action for summary possession of the Property as provided by law.

23. Purchaser's Remedy for Seller's Default. If Seller fails to observe or perform any term, covenant or condition of this Contract, Purchaser may, after thirty (30) days written notice to Seller, institute suit for damages or specific performance, unless the breach is cured prior to trial.

24. Contract Assignment. This Contract and Purchaser's interest in the Property shall not be assignable or assumable without Seller's prior written consent. Such consent shall not be unreasonably withheld.

25. Cumulative Remedies; Waivers. The remedies stated herein are cumulative and not mutually exclusive and the Seller or Purchaser may pursue any other or further remedies to enforce their respective rights under this Contract. No waiver of any rights of either party under this Contract shall be effective unless specifically evidenced in a written agreement executed by the waiving party.

26. Notices. Notices shall be deemed given when personally served or on the third day after the date of mailing, as the case may be. Seller and Purchaser shall notify each other of any change of address. All notices called for herein made by Seller or Purchaser shall be made by personal delivery or by certified or registered mail at the last known address of said Parties, which are currently as follows:

27. Binding Effect. The terms of this Contract are binding upon the parties, their heirs, administrators, executors and assigns.

28. Governing Law. This Contract shall be governed by the laws of the State of Washington.

29. Costs and Attorney's Fees. If either party shall be in default under this Contract, the non-defaulting party shall have the right, at the defaulting party's expense, to retain an attorney or collection agency to make any demand, enforce any remedy, initiate a lawsuit, initiate a forfeiture proceeding, or otherwise protect or enforce its rights under this Contract. The defaulting party hereby promises to pay all costs and expenses so incurred by the non-defaulting party, including, without limitation, arbitration and court costs, collection agency charges, notice expenses, title search expenses, and reasonable attorney's fees (with or without arbitration or litigation), and the failure of the defaulting party to promptly pay the same shall in itself constitute a further and additional default. If Seller institutes forfeiture proceedings, Seller shall be entitled to recover all costs and fees reasonably incurred in said proceedings and Seller shall be entitled to include said fees and costs in any Notice of Intent to Forfeit and demand payment of these fees and costs to cure any defaults. In the event either party hereto institutes any action (including arbitration) to enforce the provisions of this Contract, the substantially prevailing party in such action shall be entitled to reimbursement by the losing party for its court costs and reasonable attorney's fees and costs, including such costs and fees that are incurred on appeal.
