THE OFFERING

Desirable 18-Unit Mixed-Use Building in Seattle's Highly Coveted Queen Anne Neighborhood

CBRE proudly presents Centre Court Apartments, an exceptional investment property in Seattle's highly coveted Queen Anne neighborhood. Constructed in 2002, this mixed-use condominium building offers 4,335 square feet of ground-floor office space with a two story layout, soaring 17-foot ceilings, and a private parking garage for six vehicles, an invaluable amenity in this urban setting.

Above the office suite, the residential component features 18 spacious two- and three-bedroom units, each exceeding 1,000 square feet. There is a second, resident only, parking garage for 22 vehicles. Residents enjoy access to a rooftop deck with sweeping views of Downtown Seattle and Puget Sound, adding to the property's appeal and premium positioning. These oversized layouts are a rarity in Seattle's multifamily market, driving strong tenant demand and premium rental potential.
