OFFERING

Bittertree Condominiums is an eight-unit apartment building located at 13310 Greenwood Ave N in Seattle's Greenwood neighborhood. Built in 1996, the property offers a desirable unit mix of two large studios, two one-bedroom units, and four two-bedroom units, all with in-unit washers and dryers, private balconies, and a secured under-building parking garage with eight stalls. The building sits on a 6,787 SF LR3 (M) zoned lot fronting Greenwood Avenue North.

This is a stabilized asset with operational upside. Five of the eight units have already been updated with luxury vinyl plank flooring and refreshed appliance packages. The remaining three units, which are currently occupied by long-term tenants paying below-market rents, can be brought to market on natural turnover. With 1996 construction, individual electric meters and water sub-metering, in-unit laundry, and an enclosed parking garage. Bittertree delivers a low-friction operating profile that is uncommon at this price point in North Seattle.

The seller is offering seller financing at 30% down with a five-year interest-only term. The interest rate is 5.0% in years one and two and 5.5% in years three through five. On day one, this delivers a 5.7% cap rate and a 7.2% cash-on-cash return. As rents are brought to market through ordinary turnover, the property steps up to a 6.6% proforma cap rate and a 10.2% cash-on-cash return.

GREENWOOD

NEIGHBORHOOD ANALYSIS - SEATTLE, WA

Greenwood is a diverse neighborhood that straddles the northern edges of Ballard and Green Lake, extending north to the edge of Seattle, its boundary with Shoreline. Like so many parts of Seattle, Greenwood started out as its own city, but later saw the advantages of annexing to Seattle. Greenwood and 85th is the main commercial center for the neighborhood, housing a number of restaurants and food stores that exemplify the area’s diverse population. The neighborhood is down-to-earth, an even mix of single-family homes, apartment buildings from various eras and townhomes. Since 1993 the neighborhood has hosted the “Greenwood Classic Car Show” on the last Saturday in June. Another event is the “Greenwood Seafair Parade”, held on the fourth Wednesday in July. Both events draw tens of thousands of visitors to the neighborhood annually.
